

Iraqi Labor Tour 2005

INTERNATIONAL SOLIDARITY

Two Iraqi trade union leaders will visit the Portland-Vancouver area to talk to workers, activists, leaders, and everyone in our community.

The Iraqi Labor Tour 2005 will provide a rare opportunity for Oregonians to hear directly from courageous Iraqi labor union leaders who struggled for years under Sadaam Hussein's repression and who have now stepped forward to organize workers under difficult circumstances of violence and occupation. The tour will help us learn how the Bush Administration's pro-corporate, anti-labor agenda is playing out in the lives of ordinary working people in Iraq. An important goal of this visit is to build direct worker-to-worker, union-to-union solidarity and support for Iraqi labor unions as they strive to build a progressive, non-sectarian Iraqi nation.

The Oregon AFL-CIO is sponsoring the visit to Oregon.
